"We have all been waiting and it is happening - on January 15, 2019, the KCRQF website went "live" for Festival and Preview night passes

Classes, Trunk Shows and Lectures will be available to ONLY GUILD MEMBERS from January 15 -31st at which time they open for the general public.

Please note the KCRQF Home Page will guide you to where you will make any or all of the above purchases and direct you to set up your individual username and password. Once you are logged in, you will set up a user profile (your name, your physical address, phone number and your email address). You will have to designate the guild you are a participant in.

As part of your setup process, there is a dropdown menu in which you will select the participating guild you are a member. After that, start shopping and getting signed up for all of those classes!

The Ricky Tims Concert becomes live at 10:00 AM Central Standard Time
You will be guided to an external website to purchase your Ricky Tims Tickets.
All this is on our KCRQF Home Page

We also want to thank KCRQF Executive Board and our web maven, Amy Rochelle, for the tireless hours it has taken to provide you this early access to all of the exciting things happening with the 2019 KCRQF. Remember, the website will open up on February 1, 2019 to the general public for purchase all of the Festival happenings."

Facebook – Be sure to like our Facebook page - Kansas City Regional Quilt Festival. There will a question every week. The first person who answers the question correctly will receive a prizes. Prizes have been provided by each Guild.

Let Sue or Judy know if you have any questions.
